IN THE NEWS

CDA Arts Commission Seeks Public Comment on Seltice Way Roundabouts Artist Proposals

The City of Coeur d’Alene Arts Commission is seeking public comment on the art proposals submitted by the six finalists for the Seltice Way Roundabouts public art project. The artist proposals are currently on display for public comment at the Coeur d’Alene Public Library, 702 E. Front Avenue, through September 11, and then will move to the Kroc Center, 1765 W. Golf Course Road, on September 12 for public comment until September 19. For more information, contact Amy Ferguson, Coeur d’Alene Arts Commission staff support, at amyf@cdaid.org.

Performing Arts Center Feasibility Study—Draft Report

In 2018, ignite cda commissioned a report to study the feasibility of adding a Performing Arts venue to our community. Below is a link to the draft of the study released by HVS Consulting.

PARK(ing) It On Sherman—4th Annual Block Party

On Friday, September 21, from 4 p.m.—9 p.m., the 1600 block of E. Sherman Avenue will host a free block party and parking space will be temporarily turned into public spaces as part of Global Park(ing) Day. This 4th annual event is part of the visioning and master planning effort to revitalize East Sherman. This year’s event will showcase a tactical urbanism pilot project called “Activating East Sherman” demonstrating how a revitalized

Rob Stark: Doing His Best to Fulfill the Mission of the Water Department and Playing “The Best Sport Ever!”

Municipal Milestones recently caught up with Utility Supervisor, Rob Stark, to learn more about his role with the City.

(Continued on page 2)
corridor could look and function. Other event highlights include: live music, food trucks, beer garden, free bike valet parking, a bike rodeo, interactive booths, local vendors, and other entertainment. For more information about East Sherman visioning and master planning, visit eastsherman.org.

CDA Fire Department Annual Open House on Saturday, September 8

The Tenth Birthday Party for “Mudgy & Millie” at the Coeur d’Alene Public Library, 702 E. Front Avenue, will feature the public unveiling of the new “Mudgy & Millie Adventures: Australia.” Author Susan Nipp will read the new book and share a new song. Illustrator Charles Reasoner and sculptor Terry Lee will be present to sign copies of the new book as well as the original “Mudgy & Millie” book. The book characters will also attend, and birthday cake will be provided compliments of the CDA Resort.

Atlas Waterfront / Riverstone Traffic Study Open House September 12

Please join us for an Open House regarding the ignite CDA and City of Coeur d’Alene Atlas Waterfront / Riverstone Traffic Impact Study on September 12, 2018, in the North Idaho College Student Union Building (SUB), Driftwood Bay Room. Feel free to drop by anytime between 5 p.m. and 7 p.m. to give your thoughts to the Welch Comer team completing the study regarding traffic flow concerns or observations in the Riverstone area including on Seltice, Northwest Boulevard, and the I-90 ramps. The team is in the data collection phase and welcomes your input which will be valuable in the upcoming phases of the project. For more information, call 208-664-9382.

Become a Student Representative on one of the City’s boards, commissions, or committees!

What does customer service mean to you? Customer service means being able to adapt to different circumstances. Every customer has different needs, and having clear communication ensures that you convey exactly what you mean. Ultimately, customers rely on us to have knowledge of the situation at hand.

What about your family and interests? I have been married for almost 20 years, and have three children—one daughter that was recently married, and two sons. My oldest son graduated this year and will be joining the military. I love the outdoors, and enjoy hunting and fishing. I also spend time playing the BEST SPORT EVER (Hockey)!