Parking Commission

October 13, 2020

Commissioners Present: Jim Chapkis, Steve Petersen, Elaine Price, Don Walters, Ann Melbourn

Absent: Kathleen Tillman, Brad Jordan, Tom Messina, Pat Murray

Staff/Advisors Present: Troy Tymesen (City Administrator), Audrey Bell (Diamond Parking), Stephanie Padilla (City of Coeur d'Alene), Emily Boyd (Downtown Association)

Staff Comments: Troy announced the City has moved into the beginning of a new fiscal year as of October 1. He also acknowledged a potential partnership between the City and North Idaho College for one of their parking lots, facilitated by Commissioner Melbourn.

OLD BUSINESS

Parking Lot Revenue Update: September was $11,000 over from last year. City and county resident permits continue to increase. An emergency number has been put up at the parking garage now in case the call button does not work.

Municipal code modification recommendations: Commissioner Petersen submitted municipal code modification recommendations to Troy to which were presented to the full Parking Commission. The Commission would like to address the code changes at the next meeting.

Signage: Chairman Chapkis presented potential signage changes. Troy suggested to have a conversation including the Downtown Association who could then report back to the Parking Commission. Emily noted the Downtown Association Economic Committee will review wayfinding signage and report back.

Meeting adjourned at 3:20 pm.
