NORTH IDAHO CENTENNIAL TRAIL HAVE YOUR NAME ENGRAVED ON THE TRAIL MONUMENT Commemorate your support of the Centennial Trail

The monument is located at the Independence Point parking lot between Northwest Boulevard and the parking lot.

The North Idaho Centennial Trail is a 23 mile, multi-use path. The trail starts at the Idaho/Washington state line, travels through the cities of Post Falls and Coeur d'Alene, winds along the Spokane River and Coeur d'Alene Lake before ending at Higgins Point Park. It is comprised mostly of Class I paved and separated trails, with sections of Class I painted bike lanes interspersed at various locations.
